SERVCORP LIMITED

BOARD CHARTER

1 Purpose of the Charter

- 1.1 The purpose of this Charter is to set out the role, composition and responsibilities of the Board of Servcorp Limited ("SRV") within the governance structure of SRV and its wholly owned entities.
- 1.2 The conduct of the Board is also governed by the Constitution of SRV.

2 Membership of the Board

- 2.1 SRV aims to have a Board of an effective composition, size and commitment to adequately discharge its responsibilities and duties.
- 2.2 The SRV Constitution provides for a minimum of three Directors and a maximum of twelve Directors.
- 2.3 The Board has established the following requirements:
 - (a) a majority of the membership of the Board must be independent non-executive Directors;
 - (b) the Chairperson must be an independent non-executive Director;
 - (c) the roles of Chairperson and Chief Executive Officer/ Managing Director must not be exercised by the same person.

An independent Director is a non-executive Director who is not a member of management and who is free of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of SRV as a whole rather than in the interests of an individual security holder or other party.

- 2.4 A director's independence will be assessed at regular intervals, taking into consideration individual director interests notified at each Board meeting, together with an annual assessment based on criteria consistent with the ASX Corporate Governance Council Principles and Recommendations.
- 2.5 The Board has established a Nomination Committee to support and advise the Board, including undertaking appropriate checks, in fulfilling its responsibility to shareholders in ensuring the Board is comprised of individuals who are best able to discharge its responsibilities effectively.
- 2.6 SRV will provide appropriate professional development opportunities to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed for directors to perform their role effectively. Newly appointed directors must undertake an induction program.
- 2.7 Membership of the Board shall be disclosed in the annual report including whether a Director is independent.
- 2.8 The quorum for a meeting of Directors must always be a number which represents a majority of directors. A non-executive director must be present for the quorum to be achieved at any meeting.
- 2.9 The SRV Constitution provides that:
 - (a) a Director, other than the Managing Director, must retire from office at the next annual general meeting following his or her appointment. The Director is eligible for re-election.
 - (b) a Director must retire from office at the annual general meeting if he or she has been in office for 3 or more years since they were last elected. The Director is eligible for re-election.
